JAM Good Ideas:

Health-E-tips®

JAM School Program

- Teachers assign a JAM Leader of the day or week. Kids are empowered by leading their classmates as "leaders of fitness" and "moving" their teachers.
- Get the whole school jammin' by engaging everyone during morning announcements or using them as re-energizers during schoolwide assemblies.
- Teachers, principals and superintendents are leading kids or being led by kids.
- Assign the routines as homework.
- Videotape kids jammin' - kids love being videoed and seeing their classmates jammin', too.
- Video the teachers - kids love seeing their teachers jammin' even more!
- Post the routines, tips or both around school or on your intranet site.
- Send the newsletters home or use them in school newspapers.
- Use the JAM routines for staff wellness. Create some teacher-friendly competition.
- Get creative and improvise.
- This following link: <http://www.healthetips.com/jam-program.php> will lead you to the Jam (Just-a-Minute) School Program sign-up page. It's free to sign up and it provides you with JAMmin' Minute, five, one-minute exercise routines each week, JAM Blast, an athlete-delivered 3-5 minute exercise routine and a monthly newsletter full of healthy tips related to nutrition, physical activity and health.
